

Responsibilities and Jurisdiction:

At the top of the responsibilities of the locality police comes the maintenance of internal security besides undertaking the criminal, executive and administrative responsibilities for a total of 11 divisions and police stations.

Most important achievements:

On top of these comes the revealing of the ambiguities of complicated criminal cases and the development of security plans for the locality. Other achievements include the improvement of performance at all the divisions and police stations that belong to the locality and the establishment of additional ones to cope with the population growth at the residential areas like Al-Saliha and Abu Sied's 18 Sq.