

Major General Bakheet Elbasheer Ibrahim, the Director of Khartoum Locality Police, stressed the strict adherence to the set plans for covering the celebrations of Christmas, New Year's Eve and Independence.

This statement was given at a special meeting for this purpose attended by the Director of Information Branch of Khartoum State and the Heads of all branches and sections at the locality. The meeting also highlighted the importance of public awareness on these occasions; It also confirmed the readiness of the force and got assured of the attendance to all the supporting processes for execution of tasks including communication means, transport and living expenses for the forces. The meeting also confirmed the safeguarding of all establishments, river banks, clubs and picnic areas through a good spread of forces at all targeted areas.